SUFFRAGE GAINS ANOTHER ADHERENT IN U. S. SENATE

Senator Hale, of Maine. Announces He Will Support Resolution, Chang-ing His Attitude.

[By Associated Press.]

[By Associated Press.]
WASHINGTON, May 22.—The woman suffrage constitutional amendment resolution, which was passed yesterday by the House, gained another vota in the Senate with the announcement today by Senator Hale, Republican, of Maine, that he would support it.

Senator Hale voted against the resolution at the last session. Suffragists previously had claimed sufficient votes to insure enactment of the resolution in the Senate.

previously had claimed sufficient votes to insure enactment of the resolution in the Senate.

Senator Hale's announcement was sadde in a telegram sent to Colone! Fred N. Dow, of Portland, Me. After explaining that his vote was cast against the resolution at the last Senate session because his State defeated woman suffrage in the referendum in 1917, the Senator said he felt justified in supporting it now in view of the recent action of the State Legislature in granting presidential suffrage to the women of Maine.

"If they are qualified to vote in a presidential election," said Senator Male, "they certainly are qualified to vote in any other election."

Adoption of the suffrage resolution of the Senate by not less than six majority was predicted today by Senator Jones, of New Mexico, retiring chairman of the Senate Women Suffrage Committee. The Senator estimated that the vote would be about 66 for and 30 against the resolution.
